FOLSOM BREAK IS UNSUCCESSFUL

BUILDING FOR OCTOBER IS MORE THAN $300,000

New Record Established For Building

Community Hotel and Wharf Help Swell Amount of Permits

BANNER MONTH FOR CITY

Construction of Homes Also Helps Increase Amount For Month

With work started on the new Community hotel, and Wharf No. 2, on the Richmond Inner harbor, buildings during the month of October broke all records in the history of Richmond.

The cost of the hotel will be over $150,000 and that of the wharf over $64,500. The total of these two projects alone will bring the month's building up to that of any previous month since the city was founded. There were permits issued for numerous homes costing from $2,500 to $10,000, which will bring the grand total for the month near the $300,000 mark.

Building Inspector E. E. Graw issued the permit for the construction of the new wharf yesterday. According to the permit the Tibbles Pacific company will build Wharf No. 2, at the foot of Ninth street on the Richmond Inner harbor for the city of Richmond. The cost will be $64,779. The wharf will be open over its entire 500 foot length. Carries such as lumber and pig iron that may be left without covering will be handled.

CONSCIENCE IS UNDOING OF MAN WITH WHISKEY

A guilty conscience has lodged in an alleged bootlegger in the Richmond city prison. The next time Joe Quinn 2016 West street, Oakland, carries any contraband liquor he's going to do it in an unconscious way if his experience last night has any effect.

Sergeant H. A. Messenger of the local department, while keeping out a weather eye for youngsters playing Hallowe'en pranks, saw a man standing at the corner of Sixteen and Potrero. With no other object in view than to see if there were any youngsters playing pranks in that section, Messenger walked toward the corner.

At that moment, according to Messenger, Quinn threw a grip which he was carrying into the grass and took to his heels. Messenger gave chase and after catching Quinn and recovering the grip, took them both to headquarters, where according to police more than a gallon of jackass was found in the grip.

Quinn was lodged in the city jail and will appear for hearing.

Ventura—13.19 miles of Ventura Boulevard between here and Camarillo, to be widened.

Youngsters May Celebrate But Within Reason

Hallowe'en gayety and revelry will be given a free hand tonight and the young people may make as merry as they will providing that they keep their pranks within reason, announces Chief Cox. Warning is given, however, that vandalism and destruction will not be tolerated and culprits will be lodged in jail for the night to cool their ardor. A special detail of police officers will patrol the city to curb activities of too enthusiastic gurus.

JACKSON WOOD IS INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Crowded from the highway by a machine which fled after the accident Jackson L. Wood Jr., 23, 1811 Gaynor Avenue was badly injured late yesterday afternoon when his car went down a twenty five foot embankment on the San Pablo Dam road one mile from the state highway. Wood who was on his way to Richmond was thrown fifty feet further down the hill and in addition to a severely wrenched back suffered badly lacerated hands and other injuries.

It appears that no one except the occupants of the car which according to Wood crowded him from the road witnessed the accident. Rome Lock, whose father has a ranch in the vicinity of the scene of the accident saw the car turned over and round Wood while searching for the occupant. The car which had gone over on the left hand side of the road had gone down the embankment about 25 feet and was completely demolished. Wood was found some fifty feet further down the hill.

A Wilson and Kratzer took Wood to his home where he was treated by Dr. St. John Hely.

A general invitation has been extended to the public to participate in the festivities this evening.

A supply of raw dope was found when he was taken into custody, police assert, and he had feminine apparel. Huerta is shown above between the detectives who arrested him.

HALLOWE'EN IS REVIVAL OF OLD CHURCH CUSTOM

Those persons who have been routed out of a warm bed on Hallowe'en to rescue a pet fern or remove a pin from a loosely clamping doorknob probably will not believe that the day was originated to do honor to the Saints. About thirteen centuries ago pagans celebrated November 1 as All Spirits Day, which was supposed to be the day when all spirits, both good and evil were believed to be on earth. Even after the pagans adopted Christianity they still observed many of their old customs. All Hallowe'en customs and superstitions today are remnants of paganism. The ceremonies in Scotland, Ireland and Wales in former years have been of a highly superstitious nature and many of the popular class still take the day seriously.

The word Hallowe'en really means Holy eve, for it is celebrated on the evening of the Christian festival of All Saints, a time set apart to honor the memory of the saints.

The early settlers of our country did not celebrate this day to a very great extent but today while the original customs of the day are being forgotten in the countries in which they originated, the Americans have fostered them and are making the occasion something like what it must have been in its best days overseas.

Hallowe'en now means a time for gayety and pranks and is a night of ghostly and merry revelry. Mischievous youths choose this time for breaking off gates and other objects and hiding them. Building of bonfires, cracking of nuts, bobbing for apples and telling fortunes and ghost stories help to make the day popular with young and old. In the early Colonial days some of the English kept the day by ducking for apples, and the girls tried to reveal their lovers' initials by the apple paring charm. Ballads were sung and ghost stories told, for the dead were thought to return on this night.

Tonight if you should hear strange noises around your household you will know that it is the youth of Richmond doing honor to the saints.

Mrs. Messenger Returns Here

Mrs. S. F. Messenger mother of Sargeant H. A. Messenger, of the Richmond Police department, has returned to Richmond from La Junta, Colorado, where she has been for the past two years attending to business affairs. Mrs. Messenger resided with her son prior to going to Colorado and will make her home with him here in the future.

Hall Decorated For Sciot Dance

Shocks of corn, hundreds of pumpkins and squash, black cats, orange and black decorations of every kind almost breathing the spirit of Hallowe'en. That is the sight that will greet you upon entering the dance hall at East Shore park tonight.

This elaborate setting planned and prepared by William Barry and an active committee is to form the setting for the big Sciot dance tonight. Dick Spiersch assisted by members of the committee took a trip to the country yesterday afternoon and brought back a heaping truck load of farm decorations for the hall.

The officer stand has been placed in the center of a big corn shock and will form a suitable setting for the officers who will be garbed in the latest rubie costumes.

Eight door prizes are to be offered and all in all the dance promises to be one of the greatest events of the season.

SCALDING FATAL TO YOUNG BABY

Dorothy Watrus, fourteen-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Watrus of Crockett, died Thursday afternoon after she had fallen into a pan of boiling starch. The child died a few hours after the mishap in spite of efforts of Dr. J. M. McCullough of Crockett to save her life.

At the time of the accident Mrs. Watrus was washing and the child, while toddling about the floor stumbled and fell into the scalding liquid. The body was taken to the James Taylor undertaking parlors in Oakland, where arrangements for the funeral are pending.

Father Awarded Children in Suit

Lewis C. Ricks of El Cerrito was awarded the custody of his three children yesterday morning in Judge Alvarado's court pending the final disposition of the divorce suit that he filed against his wife, Mrs. Jessie Ricks. Ricks charges that his wife was cruel to the children as well as himself and that she had threatened to take their lives if he should file a divorce suit against her. He says that at another time she threatened to shoot him and inflicted severe and unwaranted punishment on their three children, the oldest of which is only four years of age. The Ricks have been married five years.

COOLIDGE MAY BE CALLED FOR COL. MITCHELL

By JAMES R. NOURSE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—After brushing aside all legal technicalities and objections, the court-martial of Col. "Billy" Mitchell today heard his plea of "not guilty" and then adjourned until next Monday, when the taking of testimony will begin.

Representative Reid of Illinois, counsel for Mitchell, said after adjournment of the court that the ruling made by the court yesterday, in which President Coolidge was named as the accusing officer, may make it incumbent upon the defense to ask the President to take the witness stand to explain the circumstances under which the charges were brought against Mitchell. Secretary of War Davis may also be summoned.

The record shows that the President ordered an investigation of Mitchell's statements made, and also directed the institution of the court-martial proceedings.

Armistice Week Plans Discussed By Legion Post

A special meeting of the Richmond Post of the American Legion was held in Memorial hall between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock last night. The meeting was especially for those members who do not attend sessions regularly and the time was made early and short on that account. Commander George Tandy presided.

The celebration to be given by the Legion during Armistice week was the principal topic of discussion. Will Lobler and W. A. Vickery were delegated to see what could be done toward obtaining a full holiday on Armistice Day, November 11. They will take the matter up with the merchants of the city and with the city council.

Clare Horner, local attorney, was made chairman of the endowment fund committee and those wishing to subscribe to the fund will be able to make arrangements with him. No subscriptions will be solicited by the Legion, it was announced, but any funds voluntarily donated will be received with appreciation.

The public is urged to watch for announcements from time to time in the RECORD-HERALD in regard to the coming show and celebration during Armistice week.

Convicts Are Taken After Long Chase

Prison Guard Made Prisoner By Fleeing Men and Used as a Bullet Shield

THROWN FROM AUTOMOBILE

Ambushed Riot Squad Captures Refugees Ninety Miles From Road Camp

(By Universal Service) BAKERFIELD, Oct. 30.—Overpowering a guard with his own gun, Folsom convicts escaped from a road camp here last night, held the guard prisoner in his own automobile and made a 90 mile dash for liberty before being captured by an ambushed riot squad near Sagus.

The guard, P. G. Hallstone, shackled hand and foot by the desperate trio was thrown out of the racing automobile as they fled through the rocky canyon of the Kern river in sight of the prison.

Running the gauntlet of the guards at the mouth of the canyon, the convicts used Hallstone's body for a shield and then tossed it over a bridge into the brush when he had served his purpose.

A departing shot was fired at the falling body, but the bullet missed. An hour later a passing motorist found the shackled guard, bruised and cut, but not seriously injured. The alarm was spread that resulted in the convicts capture.

The men are:

Harold Conley, serving five years for burglary, Santa Clara.

Luis Reposa, serving seven years for embezzlement, Los Angeles.

Williams Simms, serving seven years for burglary, San Jose.

RICHARDS HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Word was received here last night that serious injuries were sustained by Burton L. Richards, formerly of this city, in an automobile accident near Sonoma on Thursday evening.

Richards was driving toward Sonoma when he swerved to the side of the road to avoid a head-on collision with another machine. He got too close to the edge of the highway and his machine slid into the ditch, turning over twice.

The other machine did not stop to render aid and as Richards was alone he was forced to seek medical attention himself. He managed to reach a hospital in Sonoma, where it was found that his shoulder and hip were injured. He also had numerous cuts and bruises about the face and body.

Richards was widely known here, as he resided here for many years, prior to moving away from this city last May.

GRASS FIRE PUT OUT

Engine company No. 4 was called out from the Richmond Fire department at 10 o'clock last night to extinguish a small grass fire at Cuttings boulevard and Pullman avenue. No damage was caused.

THE RUSSIAN TRADE BAIT

The latest move to secure recognition from the United States by holding up to American business men a tempting bait of two billion dollars worth of trade, has fallen flat for obvious reasons, the first of which is that no well informed business man in America believes that, even were America to recognize the red government of Russia, and abandon its stand on the repudiated Russian debts, any such amount of trade as indicated would be possible.

The same bait of a monopoly on Russian trade has been held out by the Russians to the other countries of Europe. Two of these countries, Germany and Great Britain, entered into negotiations with Russia, with every disappointing result. The great Russian trade which was to be theirs did not materialize and shows no evidence of materializing. Not only this, but the resumption of official relations with Russia unleashed a great flood of communist propaganda in both countries, and the situation resulting in Great Britain was so serious that efforts are now being made to drive every alien red out of the country.

The two billion dollar trade figure promised to the United States is absurd on its face. The Russians say that they would give us that much business in the next six or seven years. This would mean an annual business of over $160,000,000, which is four times as much as the amount of purchases in the United States by Russia before the war, in the most prosperous days of the Russian empire.

Then Russia had great factories which could utilize our raw material. Most of these were destroyed during the revolution and many have not been rebuilt.

The offer of the two billion dollar trade bait has therefore met with no response from the United States. It is absurd on the face of it and evidently only designed to open the gates of the United States to a flood of Russian propaganda through recognition of the Russian government.

The United States at present is not losing any considerable amount of trade by refusing to recognize Soviet Russia. And in remaining aloof from the reds it is guarding something which is far more precious than trade—the constitutional integrity of the United States.

SYNOPSIS

Connemara Moore is at the hairdresser's, scissors poised above her auburn head. But she has yet to give the operator his instructions. If she attends Aunt Celimena's party that night—bobbed—it will be a sign that she is to marry Bingham Carrington. Otherwise, her choice is Salsontall, Cabot Adams. The engagement must be announced by midnight or she must sacrifice her aunt's estate, to which, otherwise, she would fall heir. The time is short and Connemara's mind isn't made up.

Nor did any dare to snatch off the hat and solve the question. Connemara was not one to stand that.

"You'll know soon enough," she said, and her dazzling smile included the two men most interested, as well as the rest of the noisy, rollicking group.

Home they went and off to dress for dinner.

Surely at dinner they must learn the truth, and could then toast the health of the engaged ones.

But at dinner Connemara appeared with a headdress of silver gauze, wound turbanlike round her head. Skillfully, too, so that no hint of shape or size should betray her secret.

"Oh, well," said Bing cheerily, "you'll have to show down tonight. The fancy-dress ball will last beyond midnight, and at twelve you'll have to have a dance."

"I will," and Cayenne Fairy laughed happily.

"I know her costumes," said Rose Wraye. "She has a stunning Ophelia rig that she's going to wear if she didn't bob, and a Peter Pan costume that she'll sport about if her hair is short."

"Perversity?" asked Mr. Brewster.

"Not at all," said Miss Glenn. "Panic."

"Panic?" the old lawyer exclaimed. "When both her alternatives are so agreeable?"

"Oh, they're all right, I suppose. But you'll have to admit that Bing is the kind that calls her his Cayenne Fairy Queen. That must be very fatiguing. And Salt-raves on about the pleasures of the intellect."

"How do you know?"

"I eavesdrop, Mr. Brewster. Don't you?"

"Never."

"Well, one picks up a lot that way. For instance, I listened in when you and that law clerk from your office were whispering away there under the stairs. That's how I know you have planted him here in case you should need a witness at twelve o'clock. You lawyers are pretty crafty, but I do think that little trap for Connemara isn't quite airtight."

"Ah, a loophole, eh?" said Mr. Brewster with an indulgent smile.

"An enormous one. She has to announce her engagement before the end of June, and she has to marry by October. Very true. But it doesn't have to be the same man." Mr. Brewster grunted.

"I wonder if Connemara has noticed that," mused Miss Glenn, brightening visibly at the thought of how easily she could make a little trouble. "I think I'll have to go and tell her."

It was really to detain her there with him that Mr. Brewster went on talking.

"But panic?" he asked. "If she's already decided, why—

The Fob's the Thing to Decorate the Bodice of the Smart New Autumn Frock.

THE way in which the fob idea has been made use of in fashion today is an interesting example of the thorough-going way in which clothes makers now make use of a new idea of reviving watch-fobs.

The simple little word fobs, of course, first meant pocket—a watch-fob was a little pocket just suitable for the watch. Then eventually the name was applied to the pendant of ribbon and other ornament attached to the watch which facilitated taking the watch from the pocket, added a decorative note to the costume and announced to the world that the one who wore the fob was also sufficiently important and wealthy to own a watch. To be sure there were some trailers of fashion who wore the fob—without the watch—a villainous deception, that.

But when a few months ago fobs were revived in women's fashion they very, very seldom had any connection with watches. They were faced with pins to hold them in position at the opening of a smart little tailored pocket—real or simulated. Sometimes they were sewed into position by tailor or dressmaker. Then women wore them on their hats. That seemed perfectly consistent. Anything is legitimate trimming for

The shops offer attractive examples of these new bodice fobs and often all that is needed to give rare distinction to a very simple frock is one of these decorative fobs. In fact sometimes the French dressmakers include some such ornamental fob as part of the essential decoration of a frock.

If you are fortunate enough to possess any old-time fobs among your family heirlooms, now is the time to bring them to the light, have them remounted and then wear them with one of your new autumn frocks.

TOM MIX STARS IN PICTURE AT THE CALIFORNIA

The Everlasting Whisper, which opened at the California theatre last night with Tom Mix as the star, is a picture with all the expected Mix thrills, plus a romantic story of Jackson Gregory's novel and retain all the beautiful atmosphere of the book. To this it adds the action expected of the noted William Fox western star.

In many pictures the redoubtable Tom has appeared as the tamer of men and of horses, but in "The Everlasting Whisper" he applies his indomitable qualities in quite another direction. He tames a woman. The woman is played by Alice Calhoun. She is a daughter of a society who has strayed into the wild spaces under the delusion that what she longs for is freedom from the bonds of society. She meets Mark King, played by Mix, and, after deceptions of the villain and sundry other dealings, marries him. Then she realizes that all is not glamor about the big men and rough. She rebels, upbraids King and belittles him. He breaks her as he would a recalcitrant colt—and she loves him for it.

Other features on the same program include "A Misfit Sailor," a Billy Dooley comedy; International News; "Movie Songs" with Larry Caneo at the organ.

"If I Marry Again" Is Attraction At Richmond Theater

"If I Marry Again," which was screened for the first time last evening at the Richmond theatre, deals with an age old question in a new interesting manner. In it is shown the contrast between the successful business man who is a failure in his domestic life and the failure who makes his home life a place of ideal happiness.

Doris Kenyon is seen in the leading role in "If I Marry Again," and others in the cast include such screen favorites as Lloyd Hughes, Anna Q. Nilsson, Frank Mayo, Hobart Bosworth, Myrtle Stedman and Baby Dorothy Brock. John Francis Dillon, directed the picture under Earl Hudson's personal supervision. In its revelation of the hard and fast traditions of the self-appointed American aristocracy, "If I Marry Again" will surprise many moviegoers. Because his son married the daughter of a notorious woman in San Francisco's night life, old John Jordan, proud of his name and social prestige, exiled his son and his bride to the tropics, placing him in charge of rubber plantations in a land of terrific heat and terrible fever.

From this point the story moves to a powerful climax which ends in the relenting of old Jordan who finally sees in the girl his son married a fine noble character, worthy of the right to bear his name.

Other features include "Going Great," an Eddie Nelson comedy; "Sportlight" a novelty sport reel.

Essay Contest Is Planned

The high school students of Richmond will have an opportunity to show their ability at essay writing in the contest that has been planned by Mrs. Claude Leach of Walnut Creek who is the director of the department of American Citizenship for the California Federation of Women's clubs. The contest is to be conducted for all high school students in the state of California and the best essays of each district will be submitted to judges in the state competition. Mrs. Dorothy Lenroot Black of Oakland is the chairman of the American Citizenship department for this district which includes Alameda, Contra Costa, San Joaquin, Calaveras and Tuolumne counties. The contest closes in May 1927.

Consider the Cow's Gift to Humanity

It has been proven that 99 per cent of all cows milk is consumed by the human family. The lowing calves are allotted the remaining 1 per cent. The reason for the large consumption of milk by Man is that it has been found to be the ideal food.

NATURE FREAK IS DISCOVERED IN MONTEREY

(By Universal Service)

PACIFIC GROVE, Cal., Oct. 30.—Local physicians and veterinary surgeons are baffled by the admittedly phenomenal finding of a newly born chicken in the breast of a full-grown rooster. The discovery was made yesterday by Mrs. Francisco Manoson of Monterey, who was preparing the rooster as the piece de resistance of a dinner in honor of a local couple recently married.

In dressing the rooster the chicken was found lying near the throat of the bird. It was as large as the normal freshly hatched chicken. Exposed to the air it died.

For the past two months it has been noticed that the rooster walked lame and choked on occasions. The head of the chicken, lying in such a fashion as to hinder the rooster from breathing properly, is thought to be the cause.

Since the chick must have hatched from an egg of normal size and since it is improbable the rooster could have swallowed an ordinary sized egg, another of nature's phenomenal happenings bids fair to defy solution. Physicians here declare it is the first time on record such a thing has occurred.

The Spirit of Hallowe'en

By Mrs. K. B. MULLINER
Ah yes, the light of memories doth brighten up my face!

With pleasant thoughts of other days, as these few lines I trace.

And with them, joyous as of old, the witches too are here,
And plead with winsome men that we cherish old times so dear.

Half frightening us with prank and look, and brilliant dress and tone;

They threaten, and then beckon us; and then, alas, are gone!

And we in evenings quietude watching the ember's glow,

Perceiving a sense of loveliness, are loth to let them go.

For something of the firelight's gleam, and something of the night;

And something of our hearts, I ween, have vanished with the sprites.

And we alone are left to muse in silent solitude.

With only saddened memory to serve as fancy's food.

And with some silent pain we feel, a vague fancy is near,

A longing that some kindred sprite will come again next year.

Hearing Reopened On Fare Increase

J. H. Fulmer, representative of the International Association of Refrigerator engineers, testified yesterday in the suit of the Peoples Finance and Thrift company of Vallejo, against the Den O'Sweets, of Richmond, that he had inspected the refrigerator installed in the Den O'Sweets and that it did not measure up to specifications.

The company of Vallejo brought suit in an effort to have the refrigerator plant it installed at the Den O'Sweets removed, claiming that it was only three quarters paid for. The Den O'Sweets alleged that it was not up to specifications agreed upon at the time of purchase, that it was poorly installed, and that the ice cream freezer is not capable of turning out products for commercial use. The case being heard in the court of Superior Judge H. V. Alvarado in Martinez, was continued until next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock late yesterday.

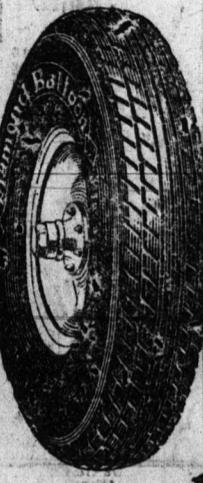

Council May Pass On Outer Harbor Dredging Plans

Approval of the plans and specifications for dredging the outer harbor basin will probably take place Monday night when they are presented to the city council. Bids on the work will be called for immediately thereafter. City officials stated yesterday that notice has been given by steamship company that unless the silt is removed from the basin no ships will touch the wharf of Richmond.

Soundings were taken last week and the engineer's office drew the plans and specifications. It is estimated that 178,000 cubic yards of silt must be removed and the cost will be approximately $45,000.

JOHNSON GREATEST
NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Fans who though Walter Johnson was due for the sticks are sadly mistaken as he is almost sure to go again with the Senators in 1926. Johnson now has 379 victories for Washington and has pitched 18 seasons. This beats Christy Mathewson's record a little. Christie won 372 games in 17 seasons for the New York Giants.

STANFORD U. C. BOXING

PALO ALTO, Oct. 30.—Four inter-collegiate boxing cards are being arranged by Stanford for the spring season. An effort is being made to arrange matches between Stanford and California and Stanford and Southern California. Arrangements have already been made for bouts with the California Aggies and the Southern Branch of U. C.

BIG GAMES

CALIFORNIA, STANFORD-O.A.U., St. Mary-U.S.C., Penn-Illinois, Michigan-Navy, Army-Yale, Notre Dame-Georgia Tech, Cornell-Columbia. Those are the principal games scheduled throughout the United States today. They should permit a fan living in any part of the country to see a real football clash somewhere near home this afternoon.

ELEANOR DEFEATED
HONOLULU, Oct. 30.—Marielene Weiselman of the Outrigger Canoe club today decisively defeated Eleanor Garratt in the A. A. U. swims here when she won the 220-yard free style event by more than 25 yards in two minutes and 49 seconds. It was Eleanor's first defeat. Lester Smith broke the 440 record by clipping 2 seconds from 5:18.

POP TAKES NO CHANCES
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 30.—Pop Warner is taking no chances with his Cards against the Oregon Aggies today. He is starting the first strong lineup. The reason for this is two-fold. The cardinals desire to run up a score bigger than that which California made last Saturday against the same team and they don't want defeat at any cost.

NEVERS SUPREME
Ernie Nevers seems to have a cinch on the title of all-Pacific full back, if not on it for the whole country. George Wilson, of the University of Washington seems to be the most brilliant next to the Stanford flash. Wilson is a fast man in the open field but he lacks the power of Nevers when it comes to crashing the line.

John Mc Givray the chairman of the State accident commission was the speaker of the day, and told of the working of the new liability insurance law that became effective on July 26 this year. Under this law every employer of any but casual labor or household servants must carry liability insurance.

Harry Chapman, former city engineer of this city was present at the meeting and officiated as sergeant-at-arms, which was his old office in the organization. Chapman is now city engineer of Venice.

An interesting story was told by James Cravath about his trip through the east recently.

Fire Chief Wm. Cooper officiated as chairman of the day.

St. Paul's Will Observe All Soul's
Day With Service

Special services will be held next Monday by St. Paul's Catholic church in commemoration of All Saint's Day which is a world wide custom of the Catholic faith. Low masses will be held at 8 and 9 o'clock which will be followed at 10 o'clock by a high requiem mass. After the high mass there will be the reading of the responses in the old St. Paul's cemetery next to the church. The Holy Rosary and responses will be held in the afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Joseph's cemetery in San Pablo. Rev. Joseph Porta will officiate at all services.

Fraudulent Stocks Cause Heavy Loss

Local bankers have made an estimate of the loss of the people of this city through fraudulent stock and investments in insecure companies for the past year. The sum of $600,000 has disappeared in these channels. To guard against such loss they suggest that the advice of some competent banker be solicited before investing in stocks or bonds.

Hollywood Pastor Will Visit Here

Rev. and Mrs. John MacAllister of Hollywood are scheduled to arrive from the south this morning to visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Hancey of the First Presbyterian church. The MacAllisters are parents of Mrs. Hancey, and will visit in this city for about a month.

The Santa Fe railroad has formed a terminal division consolidating the territory west of and including San Pablo, with changes in the jurisdiction of officials in this territory, according to announcement coming from the general manager's office in Los Angeles. The new division will be in effect November 1.

Frank H. Welsh Seriously Injured

Falling into the clay mixing machine, while he was installing it, caused Frank H. Welsh, former superintendent of streets here, to lose his right arm. Welsh was badly bruised and torn, but he is out of danger, according to report received by his family here. The accident occurred last Saturday at Oroville, where Welsh is in business.

Welsh is well known in Richmond and was connected with the Standard Oil company for many years. He later engaged in a street paving business and made a pavement known as "Richmondite."

SEALS CAPTURE LITTLE WORLD SERIES HONORS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—The San Francisco Seals sent the Louis Colons to the showers talking to themselves in today's game the last of the little world series. The Seals just managed to come alive long enough to put over the winning run in the eighth inning and take the pennant to become the minor league champions of the world.

The game was practically a repetition of the eight previous ones—wild and wooly. The fans saw lots of balls sailing to parts unknown, lots of action and got satisfaction in seeing their home town win.

Crockett, Williams and McWeeney made the mound for the Seals while DeBerry, Holley and Culup did the same for the Colons, only not to such good advantage.

Hallowe'en Is Observed Here By War Veterans

One of the most novel affairs of the Hallowe'en season was staged last night in Memorial hall by the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, United Spanish War Veterans and G. A. R. hall directors.

One of the main attractions was John Novascone, assisted by Miss Pearl Toogood, who demonstrated to the crowd how he won the first prize in the Charlestons contest in Oakland.

Excellent music was furnished by Denny Shaw's seven-piece orchestra and some new features were arranged for the evening.

The committee included: George Tandy, E. E. Grow, Ed Seger, J. J. Gilmore, John Hansen, J. E. Robbins, Charles St. John, William Vickery, Ralph Woods, John Herrick, and J. H. Fitzpatrick.

Big High School Circus Is Most Colorful Evening

Amid the roars of the animals, blasting of trumpets, the screams of frightened or lost children, the squawking of ballihoos, artists, shouting their wares or enticing the milling throngs to the side shows and main attractions, Richmond Union high school's annual carnival and circus went over with a bang at the school last night.

All during the early part of the evening while the crowds swayed about the court the chilling wind caused them to wend their way to the counters where hot-dogs were dispensed, coming sizzling from the machine where they were made.

As is usually the case with circuses the side shows were used as "curtain raisers." Going down the line of these wonders the crowds were thrilled with the work of the snake charmer, mystified by Raj-put-the magician and enthralled by the power of the strong man. Other wonders that attracted great attention were the living skeleton, the tattooed man, the Siamese Twins, the Burmese Brothers, the man eating fish, the mermaids and the bearded lady.

Then the sirens and barkers in front of the main show set up their howl, dragging, as if by the magic Raah, the throngs within the doors of the big tent, where animals from every corner of the earth and a few that probably never saw the earth before, were produced and made to act to the enjoyment and applause of the multitude.

Besides all this there were tumblers, clowns and dancers, performing "No, No Nanette" the musical comedy in the assembly, went over better than was every dreamed in the fondest dreams of the producers. Another drawing card was George Morris' colored opera in the band house.

Taken all together the circus and carnival was marked from beginning to end by success. The funds raised are to go toward purchasing equipment for the various athletic teams of the school. In short Ivan Hill and Miss Clara McLaren, the managers of the event, are well satisfied with the results.

Mark Hullings, Western States Gas and Electric company employee, has returned from a visit to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa his old home town. He reported large crops in Iowa.

Auxiliary Has Its Annual Inspection

Annual inspection of the Admiral Dewey auxiliary, No. 17, to the United Spanish War veterans, took place in Memorial hall last night. Mrs. Lizzie Hortense Crappo, senior president, was the inspecting officer. Other high officials as well as a number of visitors from Berkeley and Oakland were in attendance.

For the first time in the history of Dewey auxiliary the drill team performed last night. The color team is composed of Mrs. H. Curtis, Mrs. E. E. Grow, Mrs. J. H. Stanley, Mrs. D. Barr, Mrs. J. Rogers, Mrs. H. Kiser, Mrs. A. B. Rich, and Mrs. L. Sassaman.

Following the lodge room session a supper was served in the banquet hall. The committee was composed of Mrs. Fred B. Hicks, chairman, Mrs. E. E. Grow, Mrs. Rich and Mrs. Peter Kanuk.

Hallowe'en Party At Point Masonic Hall Well Attended

A delightful evening was spent by a big crowd at the Hallowe'en costume dance, given last night in the Point Masonic Hall by the Point Order of Eastern Star, No. 394. Excellent music was furnished by Jimmie Rasmussen's orchestra. Much credit for the success of the party was due to the efforts of the committee, consisting of Louis Moore, chairman; Mrs. Leona Patterson, Gordon Peralt and John Battal.

Masonic Lodges Stage Hallowe'en Party in Hall

Alpha, McKinley and Harbor lodges of Masons joined forces in staging the annual Hallowe'en dance and party in Masonic hall last night. The affair was one of the biggest of the year. Novelties, stunts and dancing were the features of the evening. The party was arranged by the senior wardens of the three lodges. All Masons of the city and their ladies were invited. E. C. Clark, Emmet Smyth and W. E. Peterson worked out the details of the affair.

Crossing Watchman Plan Hits Snag

The maintenance of the day and night watchman at the crossing of the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and San Francisco-Sacramento tracks on the Bay Point highway has been objected to by the Southern Pacific company. In the letter to the board of supervisors it was not stated why the objection was made but it is believed to be the cost of the maintenance. It was thought that a definite arrangement had been made for the three railroads and the county to equally share the expense of the flagman, until the objection was filed by the Southern Pacific company. The railroad commission will hold a hearing of the case on next Tuesday.
